JOE GRIM

(Saverio Giannone)

Born, Mar. 14, 1881, Monetello, Avellino, Italy. Weight, 130-165 lbs. Managed by Lew Bailey. Grim had one of the most remarkable records compiled by any fighter. He competed in more than 300 contests, from four to twenty rounds from 1902 to 1913 and during this time he was knocked out only three times though the greatest fighters of the day tried to accomplish this feat. He was floored more often than any other fighter, but because of his durability he always came up again fighting and asking for more punishment—truly an "Iron Man." He never kept a record, hence the impossibility to obtain all his bouts. Those listed here are the most complete ever compiled. They are taken from press clippings and from records of men whom he fought.

*In the original official decision of the referee and judges, Giardello was awarded the verdict as follows: Judge Shortell, 7 rounds to 3 and 10 points to 4 for Graham: Judge Agnello, 6 rounds to 4 and 7 points to 4 for Giardello: Referee Miller, 5 rounds to 4 for Giardello and five points to each.

Commissioners Christenberry and Powell, after the decision was rendered, changed Joe Agnello's score card which resulted in awarding the verdict to Graham. On Agnello's score card, one extra point was awarded by the Commissioners to Graham in round four and the tenth round was taken from Giardello and given to Graham who also received two points in that round. Thus the score was changed to give Graham the official split decision on the basis of the revision of Agnello's card by the Commission to read, five rounds each with Graham ahead in points, 6 to 5, thereby reversing the original majority decision of the judges and referee.

When the case came before the State Supreme Court, Justice Botein ruled that the New York State Athletic Commission had no right to reverse the scorecard of the official and decided the actual decision to be the one originally given, in favor of Giardello.

FIGHT OF THE YEAR

The Ring Magazine's Fight of the Year Award for 1957 went to the Carmen Basilio-Ray Robinson world middleweight title bout, held at Yankee Stadium, New York, on September 23. Basilio, fighting a courageous, relentless and tenacious battle came from behind to carry off the title from Sugar Ray in a thriller that wound up in a close but not clear-cut decision.

Basilio drives a long left to the head of Robinson in sixth round. The new middleweight champion said this stanza was the turning point in the fight which made him the fifth man in boxing history to hold the welter and middleweight crowns. Not-to-be-denied Basilio was at his peak. Robinson made a great showing. Determination by Basilio edged him out. It was a contest that left no loser. Glory enough there was for both.

ROUND OF THE YEAR

The Ring Magazine's Round of the Year Award for 1957 was given to the fifth round of the second Ray Robinson-Gene Fullmer world middleweight title bout at the Chicago Stadium on May 1.

In their first meeting the younger Fullmer had worn Ray down with his stamina and aggressive attack to take the world title, and in the first four rounds of the second battle it appeared that it would be a repetition of the first fight. But as the fifth round got under way, and with Fullmer once more rushing to the attack, Robinson let go a crashing right under the heart that shook Fullmer and then provided the clincher with a driving left hook to the jaw that tumbled the champion to the canvas for the count.
